Minnehaha Free Space Holiday Craft Fair & Bake Sale
Sat Dec 13, 2014
1pm – 5pm

I'll have a table, selling my handmade jewelry and other crafts.

My jewelry is crazy intricate Renaissance-fair-type stuff that you can see here:

<http://www.theheathersmith.com>

There will be lots of other cool artists too! And the prices will probably be lower than other craft fairs, because artists don't have to pay a huge fee just to get a table at this one.

Since it's a bake sale, there will also be baked goods! Probably including some vegan and gluten-free options, because Minnehaha Free Space is into that.

The craft fair will be at:

Minnehaha Free Space
3747 Minnehaha Ave
Minneapolis, MN 55406

right by the corner of Co. Rd 38 and Minnehaha, very close to the route of the Blue Line train.
